The Koinonia Review

John 17:13-23

Seven Key Concepts Thus Far

- Koinonia (interwoven relationship) at the center of all reality
- The four dimensions of koinonia
- Cultivating koinonia with God as Father and King
- Worship of God through the lens of offering
- Guarding/deepening koinonia with God thru intentional practices
- The centerpiece practice: love one another as Jesus loved
- “One another love” always expands outward with centrifugal force
- The work of getting practical and intentional

We Turn the Corner Toward OUT

- High Priestly Prayer of Jesus: 17:13-23
- The four dimensions of relationship in 21-23
- The centrality of the prayer for oneness (love one another!): 11,21,22,23
- A heart for the whole world
  - That they may believe and (implied) enter into the koinonia: 21
  - The world may know you love them as much as you love Me: 23
  - “World:” people, systems under the rule of the evil one: 12:31, 16:11; 1 Jn 5:19
  - Sent out into the world just like Jesus was sent: 18; also 20:21
  - Out of love (3:16-17) to be light (1:9, 8:12, 9:5,12:46)
  - In the world but not of the world: 14-18
- Next week: the principle of The Person of Peace (Nov10)
- The following week: the principle of The Beachhead (Nov 17)

13 But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. 14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 15 I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. 18 As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. 19 And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth.

20 “I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word,21 that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22 The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, 23 I in them and you in me, that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me.
